

ILLEGAL NUMBER PLATE EXAMPLE

Motorists driving with illegal number plates could be fined up to £1000 and face an M.O.T. failure.

Illegal Border

Illegal twin line border touching the Euro flag area.

Illegal Flag

Personalised logos printed in the Euro area illegal. The GB should be the same colour as the reflective (white or yellow).

Illegal Digits

Incorrect colour spacing, height and position.

Illegal font used for the numerals.

Illegal Registration

Illegal registration position
Illegal digit "group" gap.

Laminated Debris

Debris from plate making can cause slow delamination, failing an MOT.

Incorrect Fixing Position

Fixing position used to alter a digit.

DVLA Registered Trade Name

Unregistered, abbreviations, franchise badges, missing post code, oversize and offset position.

Background Markings

Retro-reflective markings such as franchise badges, trade logos and other marks or stamps are not part of the UK legislation therefore illegal.

Missing British Standard

The BSAU 145d and manufacturers' mark not present.

For detailed legislation please refer to the DVLA and BNMA websites